MUSEUM GUIDED TOURS

The best way to experience the 9/11 Memorial Museum is through an expert-led tour. Join a guide on a 60-minute tour of the Museum, examining authentic artifacts to understand what happened on 9/11, how people responded in the aftermath of the attacks, and the history and rebirth of the World Trade Center. Tours are in English and are created for adult and teenage visitors.

Visit the Guided Tour Desk on the Concourse Lobby level for more information or to join a tour.

DECORUM
The 9/11 Memorial Museum is a place of solemn reflection dedicated to preserving the history of 9/11 and honoring those who were killed in the attacks of September 11, 2001, and February 26, 1993. Given the unique nature of the site, proper decorum, personal behavior, and conduct are required from all visitors at all times, in order to provide an environment conducive to an enriching and meaningful experience. Visitors are not permitted to engage in expressive activity that has the effect, intent, or propensity to draw a crowd. Visitors are not permitted to sit on floors anywhere inside the Museum. For the 9/11 Memorial’s complete rules and regulations, go to 911memorial.org.

ARTIFACTS
Touching any artifact or exhibit item inside the Museum is prohibited, unless expressly authorized by Museum staff or as posted.

The National September 11 Memorial Museum at the World Trade Center bears solemn witness to the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001 and February 26, 1993. The Museum honors the nearly 3,000 victims of those attacks and all those who risked their lives to save others. It further recognizes those who survived and those who acted with extraordinary compassion in the aftermath. Demonstrating the consequences of terrorism on individual lives and its impact on communities at the local, national, and international levels, the Museum attests to the triumph of human dignity over human depravity and affirms an unwavering commitment to the fundamental value of human life.
