Whether you are limited on time or interested in a specific topic, these thematic, self-guided pathways will help enhance your visit to the Museum outside of this Historical Exhibition.

102 MINUTES OF THE DAY

The following artifacts, exhibits, and installations highlight the 102 minutes between the impact of hijacked Flight 11 into the North Tower at 8:46 a.m. and the collapse of the South Tower at 9:59 a.m., including the role of emergency responders. The timeline is centered on the time of the second impact, which occurred at approximately 9:59 a.m., and offers a framework to explore the 102 minutes between these events.

Following the impact of hijacked Flight 175 struck the South Tower at 9:03 a.m., and the subsequent explosion on the 130th floor.

Section of Steel Facade, North Tower, Floors 96–99

Ladder Company 3 Truck, New York City Fire Department

Virgil Quote

Memorial Hall (map image 07)

The Ramp (map image 05)

Northern Section of Steel Panels, North Tower, Floors 96–99

Heritage Trails

North Tower Excavation

Footprints (map image 17)

The Ramp (map image 05)

The Sphere (map image 01)

World Trade Center Sign (map image 25)

We Remember

North Tower Excavation

We Remember

South Tower Excavation

We Remember

Heritage Trails

North Tower Excavation

South Tower Excavation

World Trade Center Sign (map image 25)

Beginnings

The 9/11 Memorial and Museum are places of solemn reflection and an equal opportunity to have an enriching and respectful visit. The 9/11 Memorial and Museum are places of solemn reflection and an equal opportunity to have an enriching and respectful visit. The 9/11 Memorial and Museum are places of solemn reflection and an equal opportunity to have an enriching and respectful visit. The 9/11 Memorial and Museum are places of solemn reflection and an equal opportunity to have an enriching and respectful visit. The 9/11 Memorial and Museum are places of solemn reflection and an equal opportunity to have an enriching and respectful visit.