2023 VIEWING GUIDE: GRADES 6-8

Instructions: Read the text below before watching the program. As you listen to each speaker's story, think about the following questions.

ADA DOLCH

- Describe Ada's morning—what did she do when she arrived at school? What made her decide that it was time to evacuate the building?
- Describe her journey from the World Trade Center to Brooklyn. What steps did Ada take to ensure that her students and teachers made it home safely?
- What do you think Ada means when she says it was important for her students after the attacks to realize that they were now part of a history that had to be told? Why is it important to continue telling the story of 9/11?

To learn more about Ada's sister, Wendy Alice Rosario Wakeford, who was killed on 9/11 by visiting the Memorial Guide.

PATRICK MCGEE, SR. AND PAT MCGEE, JR.

- Describe Patrick Sr.'s role in the Emergency Services Unit – what kinds of operations do they perform?
- How long did Patrick Sr. think he would be working on the site? What kind of forethought did he display?
- Describe the conditions you heard Patrick Sr. talk about as he attempted to help Sgt. McLoughlin. What unique challenges did rescuers face?
- How did Patrick Jr.'s awareness of the attacks change as he became an adult? How did learning about the severity of the attacks inspire him?
- How does Patrick Jr.'s story demonstrate the ways the impact of an event continues to change over time?

To learn more about Will Jimeno, the man that Patrick Sr. helped to rescue and whose shield number is now worn by Patrick Jr., visit the DLE Archive.

DR. KERRY KELLY AND DANIEL JOST

- Compare and contrast Dr. Kelly and Mr. Jost's initial response to the attacks. How did their concerns vary?
- What impact did communication (or lack thereof) have on the Kelly-Jost family?
- What impacts did 9/11 have on the health of firefighters? How did Dr. Kelly advocate for and assist these firefighters?
- How has the New York City Fire Department (FDNY) memorialized the firefighters who were killed? How can memorialization help communities process tragic events?
